Subject Verb and Agreement

Definition:

A verb is an action or express word. It indicates the action or express in the present, past and future tenses.

Action Verbs

Definition:- The action verbs are divided into two classes. Transitive and intransitive. These verbs tell us what the subjects do. When we use a transitive verb, the action is carried across the verb to a complement. When we use an intransitive verb, the action terminates with the verb.

I. Transitive Verb

A transitive verb is one which takes an object directly.

Example :-

- She eats a mango
- Take this box
- I bought a diamond bracelet
- The fish fell off the hook

II. Intransitive Verb

An intransitive verb is one which does not and cannot take on a direct object but can have an indirect object. The intransitive verbs clearly and completely communicate without a direct object

Example :-

- Dogs bark
- What happened?
- Children play
- The train runs late every day

The same verb may be transitive in one sentence and intransitive in another.

Example :-

Transitive : The engineer stopped the bus

Intransitive : The bus stopped

Subject verb Agreement Rules

Rule 1 :- When two singular nouns refer to the same person or thing, the verb is singular.

Example :- The poet and scholar is dead

Example :- The black and white cow is grazing in the field

Rule 2 :- When two singular nouns are practically synonyms, the verb is singular.

Example :- His power and influence is very great.

Example :- Peace and order is the most important issue.

Rule 3 :- When two singular nouns though not synonyms, are intended to express jointly a single idea, the verb is singular :

Example :- Bread and butter is what he has for breakfast.

Example :- Slow and steady wins the race.

Rule 4:- When the same singular noun is qualified by two contrasting adjectives, the verb is plural.

Example :- Mental science and physical science are not the same.

Example :- Oil and water do not mix together

Rule 5 :- When a collective noun is used as a common noun, but shows some divisions, the verb is plural.

Example :- The committee are divided in their opinion on this issue.

Example :- The committee is unanimous in its approval of this proposal.

Rule 6 :- When a plural noun denotes some specific quality or amount considered as a whole, the verb is generally singular :

Example :- Six miles is a long distance.

Example :- Ten rupees is not a large sum.

Rule 7 :- Two nouns connected by ‘and not’, ‘as well as’, ‘with’, ‘together with’, ‘besides’, ‘in addition to’, ‘like’, are followed by a verb in the singular when the former of the nouns is in the singular.

Example :- John, and not his brothers was present.

Example :- The students as well as the teacher have risen in price.

Rule 8 :- When two nouns or pronouns are joined by ‘not only....but also’ the verb agrees with the second noun or pronoun.

Example :- Not only the officer but also six soldiers were killed.

Example :- Not only six soldiers but also the officer was killed.

Rule 9 :- Two or more singular nouns or pronouns connected by the conjunctions ‘either....or’, ‘neither....nor’, require a singular verb. If the subjects differ in number or person, the verb follows the number and person of the subject nearest to it. Thus :

Example :- Either she or her friends have done it.

Example :- Neither Rani nor Rekha seems to affect him.

Rule 10 :- Any noun qualified by adjectives each and every must be followed by a singular verb :

Example :- Each one of these qualities is to be found in him.

Example :- Every man and woman was killed.

Rule 11 :- “Many a” should always be followed by singular verb.

Example :- Many a man has lost everything by putting his eggs in one basket.

Example :- Many a soldier has died for the sake of his country.

Rule 12 :- If the subject is “ The Number of ” use a singular verb

Example :- The number of books is very small.

Example :- the number of boys in this team is ten.

Rule 13 :- If the subject begins “A Number” (A large number of) used plural verb

Example :- A number of boys in this team are ten.

Example :-A number of books are missing.
